

PEN & SWORD is a Compendium of Postal Diplomacy Games. The goal of P&S is many-faceted: Legibility, Accuracy, Punctuality, and Economy. Orphan games may be accepted at a reduced rate. PEN & SWORD is a member of the fine family of Seven Hills Publications (periodicals dealing with postal gaming of several kinds) based in Richmond, Virginia. Your Gamesmaster in P&S will be Michael Lind 493 Westover Hills Blvd., Richmond, Virginia 23225

Something will be missing from this issue I'm afraid... the maps. This time, at least, I can't do anything about it because of time pressure. I may try to go back to them next time around but I can't say for sure yet. We'll see.

It seems that they didn't ever take my name off the flyer that's in each DIPLOMACY game. I had requested them to do so but I imagine they had already had the printing done by that time. If anyone out there happens to purchase a new game, would you send me the flyer?

Oh, there's a change of address for a couple of people too. I'll list them here:

JERRY RIPPERDA c/o Dept of Horticulture, MSU, East Lansing, MICH 48824

LARRY MORAN Ch. des Tines 16, CH - 1260 Nyon, Switzerland

Lew Pulsipher sent me a copy of the results of the NADPS #2; I don't have the room to print the results of the thing in P&S but if you want a copy of it, send me a request with a self-addressed envelope please. I'll pay postage. P&S managed to get three responses in which wasn't bad considering our readership is only about 25 or so.

THE answers to the quiz from last issue follow:

- |                                    |                                   |
|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Uncle Scrooge Duck              | 6. Carl Barks                     |
| 2. MARVEL MYSTERY COMICS #1        | 7. Marvel Comics Howard the Duck  |
| 3. Stan Lee & Jack Kirby           | 8. Captain Marvel & Spiderman: CM |
| 4. Captain Marvel by National (DC) | is Billy Batson, a radio/TV       |
| 5. Detective #27                   | announcer, and Spiderman is Pete  |
|                                    | Parker, a newspaper photographer  |

I'm afraid that no one came very close, in fact, only Walt Blank managed to get any correct answers - two. I guess you guys all turn to the six o'clock news for your humor!

Let's see now - I've just about run out of junk... oh, I know:

From the HUGO AWARDS for SF:

As a final comment, we mention the popularity of a new personality in the SF field, Richard M. Nixon. He would have achieved a nomination in one category or another if his supporters had not spread their aim: as well as Contribution to the field, he was nominated for Grand Master of Fantasy, and in Dramatic Presentation category the TV version of "Resignation Speech" came in thirteenth.

PRESS:

PARIS to ANKARA--- Hope you are enjoying "Laurel & Hardy's" performance.

PARIS to ALL EUROPE--- is anyone out there listening?

BRITTANY to PARIS--- no.

PARIS to BRITTANY--- Not you, idiots. The rest of Europe.

PARIS to ANYONE--- If I'M the only one writing PRESS, the above is a sample of the stupefyingly dumb stuff you'll have to put up with in the future. // Serves them right.... //

Birds of a feather: The U.S. Endangered Species Lab at Patuxent, Maryland, had spent almost $200,000 in Federal funds trying, without success, to get whooping cranes to mate in captivity. As a last resort, an outside expert was called in to study the problem, which, he quickly pointed out, was quite simple: "You've got the girls with the girls and the boys with the boys."

"When more and more people are thrown out of work, unemployment results."
—CALVIN COOLIDGE

"Empty factories want to be exempt from the net-weight provisions of the Fair Packaging and Labeling Act. The National Confectioners Assn. has asked the Food and Drug Administration to exempt all candy bars and pieces of 2 oz. or less. Industry says it's in a cost squeeze and would rather shrink the candy bars than raise prices or constantly print new labels with 1-ounce net weights."
